

Medibio Signs Compass Group Australia for Corporate Health Product ilumen™

Highlights:

- Up to 300 employees across Compass Group Australia will take part in the program commencing in July 2019.
 - Compass Group Australia is part of the Compass Group PLC, a British multinational hospitality and catering service provider.

Melbourne, Australia and Minneapolis, MN – 30 July 2019: Medibio Limited (MEB or the Company)(ASX: MEB)(OTCQB: MDBIF), a health technology company announces that it has signed a commercial agreement with Compass Group Australia to trial the Company's corporate health product, ilumen™.

Compass Group Australia is part of the Compass Group PLC, a British multinational and the world's leading food service company with annual revenues of £23.2Billion. It operates in 50 countries and employs approximately 600,000 people worldwide. Compass Group PLC provides support services across the core sectors of Defense, Offshore & Remote; Business & Industry; Healthcare & Seniors; Education and Sports & Leisure.

As part of the Health & Well-being element of its global 'Purpose' strategy, Compass Group Australia implements various programs to support and improve the mental and physical health of its workforce and its clients' workforce. ilumen™ fits into this strategy by providing participants with a system for early screening for symptoms of depression, anxiety, and stress. The ilumen™ biometric data and subjective assessments provides users with a 'well-being snapshot' that they can monitor and make improvements to over time; whilst also providing Compass management with deidentified aggregate data to better support and manage the mental well-being of their workforce.

"Compass Group Australia's Health and Well-being strategy is very progressive and needed in today's corporate wellness environment. We are pleased to work with Compass Group Australia in its efforts to support both their employees and ultimately their clients in improving mental well-being. Medibio will work with Compass Group Australia over the coming months to explore the opportunities for ilumen™. As Compass Group is a global leader, this engagement represents a significant step towards our objective to implement ilumen™," said Jennifer Solitario, Sr. VP, Corporate Health.
